

Live to learn... learn to blog event

For P-12 teachers across all disciplines

Come and learn about the diverse ways web 2.0 tools are being used to enhance learning

Thursday 30 Aug 3-7.30pm
Ivanhoe Grammar School
Ridgeway Campus

James Farmer - Keynote

CEO of Edublogs.org - the largest education blogging network on the web

Concurrent sessions covering:

- Social bookmarking & folksonomy – Judy O'Connell – Parramatta Catholic Education Office
- Getting starting with edublogs. What? Why? How? – James Farmer – CEO of edublogs
- Blogging for professional learning – Graham Wegner – gwegner.edublogs.org
- Teachertube & mojiti – Helen Marotta – Templestowe Cluster Educator
- Blogging – new literacies – Heather Blakey - dailywriting.net/BlakeyWeb.htm
- Blogging in the classroom & blogging & reflective practice – Jo Mcleay – Head of English Mater Christi College & theopenclassroom.blogspot.com
- Classroom excursions – visiting impossible places – Joseph Papaleo, Head ICT Ivanhoe Grammar
- Google Earth – Roland Gesthuizen – Westall Secondary College
- Web safety – Sandy Phillips – DoE Education Channel
- All you ever wanted to know about blogging but were afraid to ask – Paul Kerr – Head of Curriculum Ivanhoe Grammar School

Full details on VITTA's website

Enquiries: Caroline - 9495 6836 – caroline@vitta.org.au

Bring your wireless enabled laptops
Online registrations will be open soon
Most sessions repeated