

We warmly invite you to participate in the
SEAA conference 2012

Social Education at the Crossroads

January 18-20th 2012

Venues

Melbourne Museum
'Moving around Melbourne'
Queen's College
The University of Melbourne
and the Melbourne Zoo

Other conference highlights

Welcome reception at the Melbourne Museum.

Community dinner catered for by the Sorghum Sisters, Sudanese caterers.

Conference BBQ dinner in the new Leopard lodge at the Melbourne Zoo.

Working with Zing Technology to develop a new
'Statement for Social Education in the C21st'.

Keynotes

Dr Peter Hill (CEO of ACARA):
'The Future of Social Education'.

Dr Lisa Cary (Murdoch University):
'Citizenship education: Home and away'.

May Rosa (Senior Elder Wardaman /Dagoman clan group):
'Indigenous perspectives: a vital dimension of Social Education'.

Panels

Kathe Kirby
Asia Education Foundation on Studies of Asia.

Dr Debra Bateman
Deakin University: 'Futures in Social Education'.

Kirsty Costa
CERES talks about 'Education for Sustainability'.

Teacher educators and classroom practitioners
add their voices to debate.

It's not too late to submit a paper or workshop!

This is the final call!

Deadline for papers and workshops is Monday October 31.

Notification of acceptance of abstracts:
November 7th.

Full papers for refereeing and Conference proceedings, December 5th.

Send paper and workshop abstracts to
Judy Moore, seaa@sev.asn.au

Please visit our conference website

<http://seaa.org.au/2012conference.html>

for further details about registration and to see the draft program.

Social Educators'
Association of Australia

