

We warmly invite you to participate in the SEAA conference 2012

in partnership with Museum Victoria and Social Education Victoria

Social Education at the Crossroads

January 18-20th 2012

Venues

Melbourne Museum
'Moving around Melbourne'
Queen's College
The University of Melbourne
and the Melbourne Zoo

Registration is tax deductible and includes
1 year SEAA
membership

Other conference highlights

Welcome reception at the Melbourne Museum.

Community dinner catered for by the Sorghum Sisters, Sudanese caterers.

More than 35 workshops and paper sessions.

Working with Zing Technology to develop a new
'Statement for Social Education in the C21st'.

Keynotes

Dr Peter Hill (CEO of ACARA):
'The Future of Social Education'.

Dr Lisa Cary (Murdoch University):
'Citizenship education: Home and away'.

May Rosas (Senior Elder Wardaman /Dagoman clan group):
'Indigenous perspectives: a vital dimension of Social Education'.

Panels

Kathe Kirby

Asia Education Foundation on Studies of Asia.

Dr Debra Bateman

Deakin University: 'Futures in Social Education'.

Kirsty Costa

CERES talks about 'Education for Sustainability'.

Teacher educators and classroom practitioners
add their voices to debate.

Sessions

....on Aus/Vels

Civics and Citizenship & History and Geography in the Australian Curriculum.

Receive a certificate for VIT recognized professional learning.

Please visit our conference website

<http://seaa.org.au/2012conference.html>

for further details about registration and to see the draft program.

Social Educators'
Association of Australia

seaa