

VITTA Professional Learning 2008

Term 1 & 2

PHP & MySQL

5 module programme

Session details

Interested in PHP and MySQL? Here are the benefits:

- PHP is one of the approved programming languages in Software Development
- PHP combined with MySQL can be used at any year level from Junior to VCE including at Year 11 for Database Programming
- PHP can be used to program mobile devices

Included in the fees are copies of Kevork's new book "PHP and MySQL for standard and mobile devices", software installation as well as sample outcomes for teachers who are interested in delivering PHP and MySQL.

All sessions are delivered by Kevork Krozian, an experienced teacher and author.

All 5 sessions are tailored to fit the beginner, intermediate or advanced person, with notes and exercises ready for participants at any proficiency level.
