

CUFWRT301A

Unit Descriptor

Write content for a range of media

This unit describes the performance outcomes, skills and knowledge required to write content for a range of media.

No licensing, legislative, regulatory or certification requirements apply to this unit at the time of endorsement.

Employability Skills

This unit contains employability skills.

Application of the Unit

The person applying the skills and knowledge outlined in this unit could be expected to write both original and re-purposed non-narrative content for a range of media.

The content could include such things as information for websites; community, news and promotional announcements for radio stations; organisation newsletters and audio or visual presentations.

In larger organisations or in the development of e-learning resources, the person would usually be re-purposing material written by other writers or content experts.

This work is usually undertaken with some supervision and guidance.

The writing of narrative content is covered in:

- CUFWRT302A Write simple stories.

More complex skills associated with writing can be found in:

- CUFWRT401A Edit texts
- CUFWRT403A Write narration and current affairs material.

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the performance criteria, required skills and knowledge, range statement and the Assessment Guidelines for the Training Package.

Overview of assessment

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate competency in this unit

Evidence of the following is essential:

- application of the principles of writing and communication to content written for a range of purposes
- content written in a way that engages the target audience
- sound knowledge of grammar and punctuation
- collaborative approach to work
- ability to work under pressure and meet deadlines.

Context of and specific resources for assessment

Assessment must ensure:

- practical demonstration of skills by writing a range of content within timeframes typical in an industry context
- access to:
  - word processing software
  - variety of information sources
- access to appropriate learning and assessment support when required
- the use of culturally appropriate processes, and techniques appropriate to the oracy, language and literacy capacity of the assessee and the work being performed.

Method of assessment

A range of assessment methods should be used to assess practical skills and knowledge. The following examples are appropriate for this unit:

- direct questioning combined with review of portfolios of evidence and third-party workplace reports of on-the-job performance
- evaluation of content written by the candidate in response to a range of briefs
- written or oral questioning to test knowledge as listed in the required skills and knowledge section of this unit.

Guidance information for assessment

Holistic assessment with other units relevant to the industry sector, workplace and job role is recommended, for example:

- CUFPPM301A Plan and prepare programs
- CUFRES201A Collect and organise content for broadcast or publication
- CUFWRT302A Write simple stories.
