

Rubric for assessing a Moodle Technology Wiki

Due Date: _____ Student name: _____

Outcome	Proficient - 4	Accomplished - 3	Developing – 2	Beginning - 1
Content	Covers topic in depth. Demonstrates a notable understanding of the content that compels the reader's attention.	Includes essential information. Accurate and organised information can be easily understood by the reader.	Has included minimal information and focus but may stray. Minor factual errors or inconsistencies may confuse the reader.	Very limited information provided. Significant factual errors, misconceptions, or misunderstandings may mislead a reader.
Knowledge links	Links to other wiki topics are appropriate and demonstrate a greater understanding of the topic.	Suitable and appropriate links provided to other wiki topics. All the links work.	Badly chosen or few links provided to other wiki topics. Some broken and do not work.	No suitable working links to other wiki topics.
Wiki attachments or pictures	Attachments or pictures demonstrate engagement with the topic and engage the reader.	Attachments or pictures are well chosen and demonstrate a good understanding of the topic.	Attachment or pictures poorly chosen and demonstrate a superficial understanding of the topic.	No suitable attachment or pictures to illustrate and expand on the topic.
Professional Communication	Article contains all correct grammar and spelling. Writing is engaging with some flair and originality.	Article contains all correct grammar and spelling. Writing is easy to read and generally NPOV.	Article contains some bias or grammar and spelling mistakes that may distract the reader.	Article is biased or contains many grammar and spelling mistakes that would confuse the reader.
References	Ample appropriate references that are all correctly cited.	Sufficient suitable references that are generally well cited.	Few or inappropriate references that are poorly cited.	Contains no references to sources of information used.

Teacher comments:

Total Score: _____ out of 20