ACCE 2010
STUDY TOUR

17 Day intensive study of the Australian Digital Education Revolution

Study leading US and Canadian 1:1 school initiatives first hand

Visit with industry leaders at the HQ's of Apple, Microsoft, HP, Google and Oracle

Hear from leading academics studying North American 1:1 ititiatives

Learn together with 32 of Australia's leading IT educators

Attend the ISTE2010 international conference as a VIP with exclusive briefings

Present a collective seminar on the DER to the ISTE2010 conference

Prepare a comprehensive DER strategy to inform your organisation

17 June - 3 July 2010
$6000 (all inclusive)

Tour organised by the Australian Council for Computers in Education (ACCE) and the Queensland Society for Information Technology in Education (QSITE).

Digital
Education
Revolution

Visit Vancouver, Canada; Seattle, Washington; San Francisco, California; Denver, Colorado; and Los Angeles, California.

Visit a wide range of schools, universities, corporate headquarters and attractions.

Invest school oncost DER funds available for PD on a program targeted at the DER

Participants will return with a developed strategy informed by world best practice, collaborative expertise, and time to study issues in depth.

The tour is fully escorted, includes all accomodation (twin share), transport (from BRIS/SYD/MELB), conference registration, excursion fees, and ISTE international membership. The only additional expense is for meals.

Total cost for the study tour is $6000 and is capped at 32 participants. Expressions of interest to acce2010studytour@acce.edu.au ASAP. 50% deposit required by 1 December 2009 with full payment required by 1 March 2010.

ACCE 2010
STUDY TOUR
17 June - 3 July 2010 $6000 (all inclusive)

ORACLE

Google

Tour organised by the Australian Council for Computers in Education (ACCE) and the Queensland Society for Information Technology in Education (QSITE).